

THE GIFT THAT REALLY KEEPS ON GIVING.

My gift to you this year is to help you support a cause that really matters to you. It's a charitable gift that comes with choice, through a website called Chimp.

You'll get an email from Chimp (and me) in the next few days. When you get it, just follow a couple of quick, easy steps and then you'll have $___ to give to any charity you choose. That's right – any charity in Canada! I hope you enjoy giving away the gift as much I've enjoyed giving it to you.

Chimp comes from charitable impact, it's like a charitable bank you can have an account with. You can add money to your account anytime, and you can give to any charity in Canada, whenever you want. Happy Chimping.
